

NMKU Workshop and Conference on May 6, 2025

The Arts in School Culture

6th of May Conference Programme

(NMKU members and selected participants)

Venue: Vartov, Store Sal, Farvergade 27, 1463 København K

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 12.30 | Check in, sandwiches, name tags |
| 13.00 | Welcome by Jens Dammeyer Sørensen, chairman of the Association of Danish Music and Culture Schools and Lotte Trangbæk, secretary general of the Association of Danish Music and Culture Schools |
| 13.10 | What is creative thinking? And what does creative thinking have to do with art in education? Henrik Wøhlk Larsen, associate professor, VIA University College, Denmark |
| 13.45 | From STEM to STEAM , Stefan Hermann, CEO, The LIFE Foundation |
| 14.15 | A Nordic perspective on children and young people as a target group for cultural policy , Malin Weijmer, analytic and coordinator, Culture Analysis Norden, and Moa Olin, analytic, Culture Analysis Norden |
| 14.45 | Break |
| 15.00 | The case of Larvik Culture School , Cecilie Lindflaten, head of Larvik Culture School |
| 15.30 | How we ensure culture for all , Ingela Granström, head of unit, Meeting Place for Youth Culture, City of Trollhättan, and Elin Jonsson, head of unit, Meeting Place for Youth Culture, City of Trollhättan |
| 16.05 | Data or no data....on the arts in Nordic school culture , Søren Friis Møller, PhD, head of research and competence development, the Association of Danish Music and Culture Schools |
| 16.20 | Reflections around tables, comments and questions |
| 16.50 | Wrap up and goodbye |

NORDISK
KULTURFOND